

MUSIC FOR FREAKS

In 2017, Music For Freaks is looking to launch a series of branded parties.

Calling on 20 years of knowledge and experience at the forefront of the house music scene, MFF will aim to provide unforgettable house parties – daring to be different and to bend people’s perceptions of house music.

MFF’s focus is to takeover backrooms and small festival spaces. To create a true house party for fellow committed house music lovers and to uphold the MFF philosophy by bringing on board an eclectic selection of respected and international artists and DJ’s.

Many years ago, Justin Harris and Luke Solomon built an island fort. A sanctuary where all their friends and fellow freaky people would be welcome. Then they built a bridge with Chicago. This long freaky bridge absorbed a whole community of misfits, who all rallied under the banner “Music For Freaks”. They all made a pact, to protect each other from bland house music and to keep it Freaky forever.

Music For Freaks then took to the road, leaving a trail of madness in their wake and all the freaky people passed on their hopes, dreams and creative ideals with one wish. A wish that future generations would take the freaky torch and spread the freaky light...

That wish started to become a reality, and in 2016 Justin and Luke re-ignited a new wave of proper wonky, left of centre vibes with the relaunched Music For Freaks label, bringing together a selection of old and new innovators to spread their house inspired bleeps, and just the right amount of swing to keep everyone dancing.

“I’m really beyond a fan, your music changed my life”

“I would be honoured to remix one of your trax, I’ve been playing so many of them”

RICARDO VILLALOBOS

Summer 2016, saw MFF label owners, Justin Harris & Luke Solomon take up a super freaky and highly successful residency at the world famous Pikes in Ibiza, throwing a string of MFF parties that quickly became a go to party for house aficionados.

The success of the parties further cemented MFF's legacy and reputation for being a creative landmark in house and electronic music.

All MFF 2017 parties will be hosted by label head honcho Justin Harris [either with fellow label partner and Freak cohort, Luke Solomon or fellow Freak cohorts Diz Washington & Jonny Rock] and can also include a selection of the following artists / DJ's :

BUDGET REQUIREMENTS

We would ideally look to agree a total budget to cover the following, dependent on any measures and policies you already have in place:

- Aim for a minimum of 3 MFF DJs per party, with one being label boss Justin Harris who will host the event.
- MFF alongside our partner agents GF Management will organise DJ flights / accommodation / transportation, in light of any arrangements you may already have in place.
- MFF branded artwork for flyers, posters, social media banners, venue decor [fee to be agreed]

PROMOTION

MFF will provide targeted PR and marketing around the parties - via our label PR partners, the MFF event mailing list and our in-house event PR agent, Leena Sharma @ Sharma PR. We will efficiently co-ordinate with your own in house promotional campaigns to ensure maximum coverage across each event.
